After much consideration, the Insurance Brokers Association of B.C. has decided to postpone the Robert P. Vickerstaff Insurance Industry Dinner and Distinguished Speaker Series until next year. This is an event we look forward to each year to network within the industry and create stronger ties with our municipal, provincial and federal government representatives.

We will miss having this opportunity to get together, but the strong social core of this event is difficult to replicate in a virtual environment. Rather than pull you away from your businesses and families during this particularly tough time for a virtual event, we've decided it's best to wait until we can come together again in person.

Thank you to all of you who've attended the event since its inception in 2004. We would also like to acknowledge the Vickerstaff Dinner industry sponsors: Reliance Insurance Agencies, On Side Restoration, Belfor Property Restoration and Intact Insurance. The Vickerstaff dinner would not be possible without the generous support of our industry partners and all those who attend each year.

We look forward to seeing you again in 2022.
